

Middlebury Friends Meeting

July
2007

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

“Every thought, word, and deed is a seed which we plant in the world. All our lives, we harvest the fruits of those seeds. If we plant desire, greed, fear, anger, and doubt, then that’s what will fill our lives. Plant love, courage, understanding, good humor, and that’s what we get back. This isn’t negotiable; it’s a law of energy, just like gravity.”

—BO LOZOFF

Middlebury Friends Meeting
Monthly Meeting for Business

17 June, 2007

Clerk: Sas Carey

~~Richard Bak~~ Clerk: P

Present were Laura Asermily, Tom Baskett, Olive Colwell, Ted Colwell, Win Colwell, Stewart Kirkaldy, Laurel Kritkauskay, Grace McGrath, Cheryl Mitchell, Heathe 11 1 gotter, Fran Putnam, Spence Putnam, and Becky Stratton.

Queries followed by silence: How do we recognize a leading? What happens when we follow a leading? What happens when we don’t follow it?

07.06.01 Minutes of May 20, 2007, were accepted with correctioeptelanrr 9 #3

N

MFM AD HOC COMMITTEE
PROPOSED COMMITTEE RESTRUCTURE,
REVISED 6/19/07

in italics & parenthesis: (number of Friends serving + length of service)

-

- Finance and Budget Committee

2 year terms) prepares the annual budget and addresses financial issues as they arise. Specific responsibilities include:

- support to the Treasurer
- preparation of the annual budget
- requests for financial support as they come to MFM (with Outreach & Social Action Committee)
- letters of appeal + other invitations to Friends to financially support MFM
- education to MFM about benevolences

- Nominating Committee

considers Friends for various offices and tasks within the meeting and invites Friends to serve. Specific responsibilities include:

- preparation of the annual roster of officers
- filling of positions that arise during the year
- helping individual Friends identify and use their talents and interests within MFM

MIDDLEBURY FRIENDS MEETING
Religious Society of Friends (Quakers)

Co-Clerks

MIDDLEBURY FRIENDS MEE M